Abstract of the Certification Report of The 5ers

The 5ers was founded in 2016. Its headquarters are in Israel, and the CEO is Saul Lokier. The 5ers does not serve traders from certain countries, including the United States, Iran, Israel, North Korea, Syria, and Venezuela.

Company offers three types of trading challenges: High Stakes, Bootcamp, and Hyper Growth, each designed to suit different trading styles and risk preferences. These challenges vary in structure, from a two-phase competitive program to a simplified one-phase option, with features like daily drawdown or pause rules to help manage risk. Additionally, The 5ers provides a scaling plan allowing traders to grow their accounts up to $4 million, offering significant potential for increased capital and trading opportunities. It is worth noting that after properly scaling the High Stakes account, a fixed monthly salary is additionally possible.

The 5ers trades directly with commercial liquidity providers and does not work with retail broker brands, maintaining strict confidentiality around its suppliers. The platform only supports trading on MetaTrader 5. Leverage varies by challenge, with High Stakes offering up to 1:100 on forex, while Bootcamp and Hyper Growth provide lower leverage, tailored to different trading instruments.

The leverage ranges from 1:100 on forex in High Stakes to 1:30 in Hyper Growth, with crypto leverage being the lowest across all challenges.

The 5ers offers various deposit options, including direct transfer, credit cards, and cryptocurrencies such as Bitcoin, Ethereum, and Tether. Withdrawals are available once traders reach funded levels and can be processed biweekly, with a minimum withdrawal amount of $150. Smaller withdrawals under $1500 may be processed via crypto. Hub credits are awarded to High-Stakes traders upon leveling up and can be used towards new challenges.

The 5ers offers email support, but responses can be general and may take several hours, so using the live chat is recommended for faster assistance. Company offers a variety of educational resources for traders, including interactive Trading Rooms for real-time market analysis and collaboration. Their classes provide live sessions that cover advanced trading concepts, enhancing traders' skills and knowledge.

The 5ers actively engages with traders on various platforms, including X, Instagram, Facebook, YouTube, and TradingView. Additionally, Discord is available for those participating in their challenges. Overall, users perceive The5ers as a reliable prop firm, valuing its commitment to low-risk trading and opportunities for growth. The company has a rating of 4.9 on Trustpilot.

The 5ers seldom offers discounts, but it's advisable to check for any available promotions when purchasing an account, especially since discounts may apply for first-time buyers using affiliate links from existing users. The firm also has an Affiliate Program, allowing traders to earn a 10% commission for referring new participants, with the potential for a commission split if desired. Affiliates must follow specific promotion guidelines, including obtaining permission for paid ads and adhering to keyword restrictions to maintain their accounts and ensure continued earnings.

Challenge Types

The 5ers provides traders with a unique opportunity to participate in three distinct types of challenges designed to cater to various trading styles and risk preferences.

The High Stakes challenge is structured as a two-phase program that follows industry-standard requirements. This challenge is ideal for traders who are looking to push their limits and engage in a competitive trading environment. Participants in this challenge must demonstrate their ability to manage risk effectively while achieving their profit targets.

Next, there is the Bootcamp challenge, which consists of three phases. Each successive phase features an increasing initial balance, encouraging traders to develop their skills progressively. As traders advance through the phases, they work towards reaching the target amount in the funded account. This challenge is designed for those who thrive in a structured environment, allowing them to build their trading strategies and confidence step by step.

Finally, the Hyper Growth challenge offers a one-phase format that simplifies the process for traders. In this challenge, participants have the opportunity to double their account size upon reaching the profit target. This straightforward approach appeals to those who prefer a quicker pathway to scaling their accounts without the complexity of multiple phases.

While the High Stakes challenge incorporates a daily drawdown, which requires traders to manage their losses carefully, the other challenges implement a daily pause rule. This means that if a trader reaches a certain loss limit within a day, their trading will be paused until the next day, allowing them to reassess their strategies without the pressure of continuous trading.

One of the standout features of The 5ers is its scaling plan. This plan allows traders participating in the Bootcamp and Hyper Growth challenges to scale their accounts up to an impressive $4 million. This scaling potential provides traders with the opportunity to significantly increase their capital, enabling them to trade with more substantial positions and further enhance their profit potential.

In summary, The 5ers offers a range of challenges tailored to different trading styles. With the added benefit of a scaling plan, traders have the chance to maximize their growth and succeed in the dynamic world of trading. The 5ers also offers Stock Trading. However, this option redirects to an external website, and it should be verified before starting any activity on it.

Special Rules Assessment for Hyper Growth

The Hyper Growth program offers account doubling, meaning that each time a trader reaches the profit target, the account size automatically doubles. Parameters related to the profit target, maximum loss, and daily pause remain unchanged at all stages of the program. The daily pause means that the account is paused for the rest of the day, but trading can resume at 00:00 MT5 server time the next day. If the account hits the stopout level, which is 6% below the initial balance, it is closed.

After completing each level, traders receive bonuses to their HUB account, in addition to the standard profit split. If an account is inactive for more than 30 consecutive days, it will expire, though traders have unlimited time to complete the challenge.

EA trading, holding trades overnight and over the weekend is permitted. While holding indices over the weekend is allowed, it comes with high swap costs. News trading is permitted, except for bracketing strategies. Trading cryptocurrencies on the weekend is possible. Cryptocurrencies are available for trading 24/7, including weekends, allowing traders more flexibility in planning their strategies.

Verification process

The KYC (Know Your Customer) process is used for trader identity verification. It is a very quick and easy process that all traders must complete after successfully finishing the challenge.

The following documentation is required:

- Full name
- Address
- Date of birth
- Passport or ID card
- Proof of address
- Any other documentation required by local tax authorities

Please note that the process is conducted by an external provider, sumsub.com, and The 5ers has no control over its outcome. Once the KYC is completed, the newly funded account will be activated and ready for trading.

Prohibited strategies

Prohibited trading practices that will breach Terms and Conditions:

Use exploitation of price discrepancies or glitches within different markets of similar or identical assets, also known as Arbitrage Trading

Situation: A trader notices that the same asset is priced differently on two different exchanges. They exploit this price difference by buying/ selling the asset on the exchange where its price is different, making a profit from the price discrepancy.

High-frequency trading in which the majority of trades' duration span is measured within a few seconds or less.

Situation: A trader uses sophisticated algorithms to execute thousands of trades within milliseconds, taking advantage of small price movements in the market. They aim to profit from these rapid trades, leveraging technology to gain an edge.

Bracketing strategy by opening pending orders around high-impact news. It consists of opening buy and sell stops close to the price before the news.

Situation: Ahead of a major economic announcement, a trader places both buy and sell pending orders just above and below the current market price. When the news is released, triggering volatility, one of the pending orders is executed, allowing the trader to profit from the price swing.

Intentionally or unintentionally employ trading strategies that take advantage of errors within the system, such as inaccuracies in price display or delays in updating

Situation: Due to a technical glitch, the trading platform displays incorrect price quotes for a particular asset. A trader quickly identifies this discrepancy and places trades based on the inaccurate prices, intending to profit before the error is corrected.

Trade coordination or copy trading with other traders or accounts

Situation: A group of traders collaborates to execute coordinated trades across multiple accounts. They share signals and strategies with each other, effectively copying each other's trades to amplify their collective profits.

One sided-bets which refer to a trading strategy where the user takes consistently positions in one single direction without considering market conditions or conducting proper analysis

Situation: Without conducting proper analysis, a trader consistently enters long positions on a particular currency pair, believing it will continue to rise indefinitely, regardless of market conditions or contrary indicators.

Expert Advisors which scalp during the rollover-night to take advantage of the price feed

Situation: A trader uses an Expert Advisor programmed to exploit price discrepancies during the rollover period when liquidity is lower. The EA executes rapid trades to capitalize on small price differences between bid and ask prices.

EA from a third party where other traders have the same trades open (copy trading)

Situation: A trader purchases an EA from a third-party provider without realizing that many other traders are already using the same EA with identical trading strategies, leading to saturation in the market and diminished effectiveness.

Using an EA from a provider where the trader does not own the source code.

Situation: A trader subscribes to an EA service where they receive pre-built trading algorithms without access to the underlying source code. They deploy these EAs without understanding how they operate or being able to customize them to their needs.

Tick Scalping

Situation: A trader engages in rapid-fire trading, entering and exiting positions within seconds based on minor fluctuations in price that occur with each tick of the market.

Hedge Arbitrage Trading

Situation: A trader simultaneously buys and sells the same currency pair on different accounts exploiting temporary pricing inefficiencies

Reverse Arbitrage Trading*Account Sharing or Reselling accounts with other individuals or entities

Situation: A trader sells access to their funded trading account to another individual or entity, allowing them to trade on their behalf or use the account for their own purposes in exchange for a fee or profit share.

Account Management Services “Pass your Challenge” is also prohibited

Situation: A service to manage other individuals' challenge accounts, promising to pass the evaluation phase and gain funding on their behalf in exchange for a percentage of the profits generated.

If your account has been found abusing the system and violating the trading rules, the contract will be terminated immediately without agreement. Any refund or profit will not be processed and you will be permanently banned from The5ers Fund.

Bootcamp

Individuals purchasing starter accounts begin with the following parameters: the maximum loss is 4%, the profit target for scaling is 5%, and the payout ratio is 50/50. At the 2 million dollar level, the payout ratio rises to 80/20, and at 2.5 million dollars, it reaches 100/0.

After scaling the account, the waiting period for payouts resets to 14 days.

Spread

Methodology

The methodology for calculating the average spread at various times of the day involved taking three separate spread measurements at approximately 10-minute intervals. These measurements were conducted at specific times to represent morning, afternoon, and evening averages:

Morning Average

This average was calculated based on three spread measurements taken around 08:00 GMT, with each measurement approximately 10 minutes apart.

Afternoon Average

For the afternoon average, three spread measurements were similarly taken around 13:00 GMT, at roughly 10-minute intervals.

Evening Average

The evening average involved three spread measurements conducted around 18:00 GMT, also with approximately 10-minute intervals between each measurement.

The average for each of these time periods was calculated using the following formula:

Subsequently, to determine the Daily Average spread, the averages obtained for the morning, afternoon, and evening were combined using a similar formula:

I am just newly funded trader with 20K...

I am just newly funded trader with 20K High Stakes Fund. After numerous attempts I managed to clear the 2 Stage Challenge to become a funded trader. The resources provided to all the traders by 5ers is phenomenal, There are plenty of Videos on Demand, regular webinars and trading tools freely available when you join the 5ers. Once you pass your challenge, the process of getting a funded account is very quick and seamless. I am yet to withdraw anything, hence cannot comment on the withdrawals at this point in time

I joined with the5ers with great hope, But...

I joined with the5ers with great hope that they will behave professionally. My experience is being little upset. They have told High Stakes have daily risk limit 5%, Maximum all over risk 10%. When I passed challenge (My 1st phase the equity never gone less than 1% from the initial deposit, The 2nd phase the equity never down more than 2.8% from initial deposit. When I make profit, I take little higher risk (but risk is limited within the 5% daily DD). This is vital to increase the profit, because the market is only 20-25% of the time in trend. It is like we need to invest more when the economy is good. Most important I have not held position without Stop Loss. After I reached funded stage They sent me mail New Risk Rules which is makes doubt on their reliable. Its almost more than a month passed with my funded High Stakes account, Yet no response to remove the extra rule. I was with FTMO and I was with in Top 10 traders list. I never faced any issues with them. If 5ers allow me trade without any extra rules I'll become one of the top trader with 5ers too.

Pros: 1. Withdrawals has no issues.
2. Decent spreads/Commission.

Cons: 1. Charging extra 2% for the Riseworks withdrawal. 1% for the other withdrawals
2. Adding extra rules after passing challenge.
3. If trader already have 100K funded account
No more additional 100K account can participate

Summary

The 5ers has established a solid tradition over several years, with its headquarters based in Israel. Renowned for its innovative approach to trading, The 5ers offers a diverse array of challenges, ensuring that every trader, regardless of their experience level, finds something tailored to their needs. These challenges are designed to be original, incorporating unique solutions that set them apart from other firms in the competitive landscape of proprietary trading.

Traders can select from various challenge options, including High Stakes, Bootcamp, and Hyper Growth, each catering to different trading styles and goals. One of the features of The 5ers is the ability for users to scale their funded accounts, allowing them to increase their trading capital significantly. Each challenge type offers a specific scaling version, with the potential to scale accounts up to an impressive $4 million, making it an appealing option for ambitious traders seeking substantial growth. It is worth noting that after properly scaling the High Stakes account, a fixed monthly salary is additionally possible.

Purchasing accounts is straightforward, as The 5ers provides multiple payment methods, including direct transfer, credit cards, and cryptocurrencies. Additionally, the company has introduced a unique rewards system known as Hub Credits. These credits are earned as traders achieve specific milestones and can be utilized to purchase new challenges, further incentivizing continuous engagement and performance.

The 5ers maintains a strong presence on various social media platforms, including popular networks such as Facebook, Instagram, and X. This active engagement not only keeps traders informed about company news and promotions but also fosters a sense of community among users. The firm is dedicated to supporting its traders by offering a wealth of educational materials on its website and platforms like YouTube and TradingView. These resources cover essential trading concepts, strategies, and market analyses, empowering traders to enhance their skills and knowledge.

The 5ers presents an appealing affiliate program. This initiative allows traders to earn a 10% commission for referring new participants, providing an additional revenue stream while promoting the firm's offerings. However, The 5ers does not disclose specific information about its server providers, emphasizing that it does not engage with common retail broker brands, which may appeal to traders looking for a more exclusive trading experience.

Despite its strengths, some limitations exist. The 5ers offers a relatively limited selection of trading platforms, as trading is restricted to MetaTrader 5. Additionally, the leverage provided to clients is on the conservative side, with only the High Stakes accounts offering leverage of 1:100 for forex trades. A drawback is that clients from the United States are not serviced by the company, potentially excluding a substantial market segment.

Overall, The 5ers has garnered very positive ratings among its users, reflecting high levels of satisfaction with its services and offerings. The company may serve as an attractive alternative for traders looking to diversify their investments within the proprietary trading realm.
